What is Playball?

Playball is not just another movement program. It is a highly specialized INTERNATIONAL ball skills program devised by sports experts, educational specialists, occupational and physical therapists. In Playball the skills necessary for all sports are broken down into their basic components. The kids learn to throw, kick, bounce, dribble and handle all different sporting balls according to their age and appropriate skill level. The Playball program is not intended to produce sport stars. The program is designed to encourage the development of age appropriate gross motor skills and sports readiness.

How does it help children?

We use the medium of sports to improve ball skills, increase concentration, build muscle tone, enhance eye-hand/eye-foot coordination and improve balance. Playball also teaches life skills that are not associated with sports at all. At Playball your children will learn persistence, courage, cooperation, respect, positive relationships, self worth, communication, responsibility, creativity and countless other attributes. We address the need of the whole child, dealing with the social, emotional, cognitive and physical aspects of development.

Why Playball?

Gross Motor Development provides the basis of all other forms of development, including intellectual and perceptual development. Physical activity has a profound influence on academic performance. If certain developmental milestones have not been achieved by school-going age, children will often find it difficult to cope in the classroom. The Playball program incorporates movement/ sporting activities while giving kids the opportunity to develop every aspect of their lives.

The Playball Class

The classes have an impressive creative component that ensures each lesson is both exciting and positive. The children are never bored and love the lessons. The program is progressive and children can advance to different levels. Class sizes are limited to ensure adequate individual attention.

If you want to give your child the best gift imaginable, i.e. the opportunity to develop life and sport skills, sign up for Playball today!!
